MUSICAL ITEMS

Showstoppers: Big Broadway Moments requires approximately 40 solo performers with the possibility of some cast performing multiple items, with total vocal ensemble up to 50 or more depending on auditions. There will be a short list of approximately 20 items from the following list which will be chosen based on what you bring to the audition. These items will require strong singers with some of them needing dancing. Some items require the addition of the vocal ensemble, and few requiring all of the above. The production calls for a diverse cast, and every character, young and old, is an integral part of this wonderful production.

If you are not looking for a solo part, but are only looking to join the vocal ensemble, please book and complete your audition as normal and let us know.

The opening number is locked in for the production. This will be The Greatest Show from The Greatest Showman, and the “The Showman” character will be the narrator. If you believe you have the acting ability, charisma and talent to take on this role, please audition for it.
